I'm not robot!

Sometimes referred to as “Dad rifles”, some love to hate Pulse rifles. They claim Pulses require no skill and are too easy to use. But that couldn’t be farther from the truth. Granted, some of them are considered to be among the best weapons for PVP in the entire game. But in PVE, they struggle somewhat. This guide covers every Pulse rifle in Destiny 2, including both Exotic and Legendary Pulses, as well as the best rolls for PVE and PVP. Lists updated as of Bungie’s 30th Anniversary event. The Tier list below includes every non-sunset Pulse rifle in the game. It starts with the S Tier weapons and moves down from there. It also covers both PVE and PVP, with the “Excels in” column clearly identifying in what area each weapon shines: NameWeaponsTypeArchetypeAmmoElementRequirementsAvailable?RankSourceObtainable?Tier rankSource | DLCFinal VerdictReleasedPerksHorror’s Least Horror’s LeastPulse RifleRapid-FirePrimaryArcFree-to-PlayYesOngoingNightfall: The OrdealsOngoing… Nightfall: The Ordeals Free-to-PlaySlot: Arc | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: Rapid-Fire Review ongoing… Season 1?Slot: Arc | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: Rapid-Fire Review ongoing… New Purpose New PurposePulse RifleHigh-ImpactPrimaryStasisDeluxe EditionYesOngoingDually DungeonOngoing… Duality Dungeon Deluxe EditionSlot: Stasis | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: High-Impact Review ongoing… Season 17Slot: Stasis | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: High-Impact Review ongoing… InsidiousInsidiousPulse RifleAggressive BurstPrimaryArcThe Witch QueenYesB - BestVow of the Disciple RaidBest | S Excels in: PvE + PvPVow of the Disciple Raid The Witch QueenSlot: Arc | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: Aggressive Burst PvE God Roll: Rapid Hit (also good: Dragonfly) + Rampage PvP God Roll: Rapid Hit (also good: Heating Up) + Rampage ► The only 4-burst pulse rifle to be released in over two years, people had big expectations for this weapon. And with outstanding perk combinations for both PVE and PVP, Insidious blew those out of the water. With an S-Tier Origin Trait and no terrible perks in its pool, there’s not much to hate about this pulse rifle. For PVP in particular, Aggressive Burst pulses hit like a truck, flinching opponents with ease.Season 16Slot: Arc | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: Aggressive Burst PvE God Roll: Rapid Hit (also good: Dragonfly) + Rampage PvP God Roll: Rapid Hit (also good: Heating Up) + Rampage The Messenger The MessengerPulse RifleHigh-ImpactPrimaryKineticThe Witch QueenNoS ► BestTrials of OsirisBest | S Excels in: PvPTrials of Osiris The Witch QueenSlot: Kinetic | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: High-Impact PvP God Roll: Rapid Hit (also good: Outlaw) + Desperado ► This returning weapon from Destiny 1 is hands down the best Pulse rifle right now. Belonging to the High-Impact archetype, The Messenger benefits from one of the fastest TTKs in the game. On top of that, it has best-in-class base stats and excellent perks. And while all of its perks are good, it can also roll with the exclusive Desperado perk. With Desperado, which greatly increases its rate of fire after a precision kill, its TTK is massively reduced, allowing it to duel absolutely anyone and even go for insane killing sprees in 6v6 modes.Season 13Slot: Kinetic | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: High-Impact PvP God Roll: Rapid Hit (also good: Outlaw) + Desperado BxR-55 Battler BxR-55 BattlerPulse RifleLegacy PR-55PrimarySolarFree-to-PlayYesA ► StrongDares of EternityStrong | A Excels in: PvE + PVPDares of Eternity Free-to-PlaySlot: Solar | Ammo: Primary | Archetype: Legacy PR-55 PvE God Roll: Outlaw (also good: Perpetual Motion) + Kill Clip (also good: Blunt Execution Rounds) ► The BxR is a one-of-a-kind Pulse rifle. The MessengerPulse RifleHigh-ImpactLegacyPrimaryKineticThe Witch QueenNo Primary KineticBest | SPvPTrials of Osiris The Witch QueenSeason 13KineticNo TTK is particularly important in PVP, because the lowest the TTK, the faster you can kill your opponent. You can read all about it in our TTK guide below. This TTK guide includes the TTKs for every weapon in Destiny 2. When it comes to PVP, Pulse rifles are a strong choice. In fact, they probably are the top second choice for competitive players, just behind hand cannons. Some of the top Pulses are even considered “Meta”, especially High-Impact Pulses that can reach insane time-to-kills (TTK). Do keep in mind that TTKs aren’t everything. Versatility and ease of use also come into play. High-Impacts may offer one of the best TTKs in the game, but if you can’t land your shots, the archetype loses all its advantages. If you’re looking for a more forgiving alternative, Rapid-Fires (Darkest Before) and Adaptives (The Third Axiom) can be excellent choices too. DPS is important for PVE, because the higher the DPS, the more damage you can deal to a Boss or Major. This DPS chart includes the DPS numbers for every weapon in Destiny 2. When it comes to actual DPS, Pulses deal very mediocre damage: Endgame content Whereas Pulses can dominate any Crucible match, be it casual 6v6s or Trials of Osiris rounds, they currently struggle in PVE. They have the range and ease of use to compete, but they simply deal too little damage. And since hand cannons and scout rifles recently received a PVE damage buff, Pulse rifles struggle even more. For this reason, you won’t often see Pulse rifles in PVE endgame content, unless seasonal Pulse rifle mods become available (Anti-bragger, Overload, etc). We’ve talked about the best Pulses for PVE and PVP already, but how do they compare, in general, with other primary weapon types? In other words: Are Pulse Rifles good in Destiny 2? The current Meta for PVE So, are Pulses good in Destiny 2 PVE? This table summarizes how the several primary weapon types rank against each other in PVE: What about PVP? This table summarizes how they rank against each other in PVP: You now know everything there is to know about Pulse Rifles in Destiny 2, whether that is for PVP or PVE content. Latest changes made to this guide Things change fast in Destiny 2, especially when a new Season or Expansion launches. For that reason, this post will be updated at least once per season. With the release of Season of the Lost (Season 15) and Bungie’s 30th Anniversary event, the following weapons were added: BxR-55 Battler Jurassic Green Darkest Before Legal Action II Stay tuned and don’t forget to bookmark this page for next season!
